24 RECEIVE DIPLOMAS AT LACOSTE GRADUATION

LACOSTE—Graduation exercises at LaCoste Public High School were held Friday evening, May 25, at 8 o'clock. Plans had been to stage the graduation on the football field, but due to the heavy rains earlier in the week, exercises were held in the auditorium.

Rev. Henry S. Herbst, pastor of Our Lady of Grace Church, LaCoste, gave the opening prayer and Franklin Keller gave the welcome address. William Geiger's speech, entitled "Today's Challenge," was followed by the song, "May The Good Lord Bless and Keep You" by the graduating class. Supt. A. D. Blue, presented the special awards. Presentation of the perfect attendance awards was unique this year since the state also awarded parents of students qualifying for this honor. Grace Gomez achieved the record of having been neither absent nor tardy in her four years in high school.

E. J. Keller, president of the school board, granted the diplomas. Bobbie Nell Burkholder gave the farewell address after which the school song, "Always Ready," was sung by the graduates. The closing prayer was given by Rev. Herbst.

The stage was decorated with mixed gladioli, the class flower, and the class motto, "Watch Us Climb," was spelled out in letters of blue against a white background.

Devine-Biry Election Set For June 30

Medina County Board of School Trustees met in special session May 29, with all members present. The re-organized board consists of P. S. Keller, trustee-at-large; E. A. Bendeke, precinct 1; Joe F. Schott, newly elect, precinct 2; Hilmar J. Koch, appointee for unexpired term of W. O. Rothe, precinct 3; and H. L. Brown, precinct 4.

The returns of Biry-Devine Annexation election were canvassed with results as follows: Devine 185 for annexation and 5 against; Biry 21 for annexation, and 24 against. # All Star Game In D'Hanis Sunday

First Contest In Best Of Three Set June 3rd

The first of three Highway 90 League All Star games will be played at the D'Hanis ball park on Sunday, June 3, at 3 P. M.

Manager of the opposing nines will be the leader of the eastern and western clubs, Oscar Suehs of Castroville, and Tom Finger of D'Hanis.

A second All Star game has been set at LaCoste for July 9, and a third will be played on July 13 in Macdonia in the event that each side has won a game. A third game will not be played if either team sweeps the first two games.

Managers of the east and west squads selected 20-man rosters at a meeting in Hondo Tuesday night. Each team at least two representatives on the All Star squads. Players in the games may go all nine innings, although pitchers will be limited to three innings unless extra innings are required in which case the last hurler can pitch the rest of the game.

Rosters selected at the meeting were as follows:

Catchers—O. Suehs, Castroville; Haby, Rio Medina and Ludwig, LaCoste.
Pitchers—R. Keller, Castroville; C. Bippert and T. Jungman, Rio Medina; and Santleben, LaCoste.
First Base—F. Keller, LaCoste; and Stanley Jagge, Castroville.
Second Base—Mangold, Rio Medina; and Reininger, Macdonia.
Third Base—Schmidt, Castroville; and M. Jungman, Rio Medina.

Bears Baffle Scorer In 22-1 Win Sunday

The Hondo Bears laid down a batting barrage Sunday afternoon to defeat the San Antonio Red Sox 22-1. Pete Morales Jr. pitched the first five innings, allowing three hits and one run. Gregorio Prunedra, an ex-Bear hurler, came in and held the visitors runless in the last four innings.

A box score was not made available because the high score made it necessary for the scorekeeper to have two assistants.

The Bears will play Hernandez Place in San Antonio Sunday and will attempt to avenge a 1-0 loss suffered last month.

Sinclair, Girls Win Wednesday

Play in the Hondo Softball League resumed last week following two rained-out nights with Sinclair topping D'Hanis 9-0 and the Hondo Bluebirds hitting their stride in overpowering the Bandera Ranch Hands 16-1.

After being set down in order in the first two innings, Sinclair's batters found the the range in the third when five runs scored. Another came home in the fourth, and three tallies in the sixth ended the Oilers' scoring. Blackie Williams, with a double and two singles in four official trips, led the batters.

The Hondo Girls, after dropping 0-1 and 4-5 games to Natalia in their first two starts, had little trouble in shellacking Bandera 16-1. Mona Eckhart allowed four hits and no runs in the four innings she pitched, and Doris Lindeburg allowed two hits and one unearned run in the final frame.

D'Hanis High Sweeps Series For Bi-District

D'HANIS.—The D'Hanis High School Cowboys took two straight games from Somerset High last week to sweep bi-district honors. Paced by air-tight pitching from Bob Rothe, the Cowboys turned in 16-0 and 7-5 victories.

In the first game Rothe faced only 21 batters, allowing no hits, no runs. In the second game Rothe came in with the bases loaded to stop a Somerset scoring threat. In the ten innings that Somerset faced Rothe, they were unable to come close to getting a hit. "Rapid Robert" set 14 batters down via the strikeout route.

Last year the Cowboys won bi-district by winning from a strong Comfort team.

The LaCoste Eagles gave D'Hanis the strongest competition for district laurels before going down twice.

In winning 12 straight games this year, the Cowboys posted victories twice over all district teams and downed Uvalde and Devine in non-district play. The Hondo Owls scored a 12-11 victory over D'Hanis in the first game of the year for the Cowboys.

Rothe's outstanding record was 73 innings pitched, 24 hits allowed, 18 runs, 35 walks, 95 strikeouts, 4 hit-batters, and 5 earned runs. The record shows that Rothe allowed slightly less than one-half earned run per seven inning game.

I. D. Schultz, Rothe's battery mate, deserves much credit in handling the junior fastball artist.

LaCoste 9—Hondo 8

LaCoste, Texas, May 27th—LaCoste Athletics' took advantage of the breaks that came their way here this afternoon and as a result turned back the Hondo Lions 9-8.

The big bat of Mgr. Franger of the Athletics, plus the faulting fielding of the Lions paved the way for the LaCoste victory. Hondo was off to an early 2-0 margin in the 1st stanza, only to see it erased by a base on balls, a single and a homerun by Franger in the bottom of the inning. From the first inning to the 7th the game rocked along witholding a close margin—but, in the 7th LaCoste scored four times on one hit—a double by Franger. Two base on balls, a man hit by pitched ball and two errors helped out.

The Lions retaliated in the 9th stanza, scoring three times on 3 hits, and a base on balls. Parsons and Cliff Sadler doubled through the height of the rally.

H. Finger of the Lions tripled in the opening inning rally.

For LaCoste Franger's homerun and double and G. Keller's double were the only extra base blows.

The Rio Medina Tigers fought off a determined Macdonia rally in the 9th inning in their game at Rio Medina to edge the Cubs 6-5. Rio's Tigers were rocking along atop a 6-1 margin when the Cubs came to life in the 9th to score four runs.

C. Bippert was the Tigers winning hurler, but was forced to call on the help of Melvin Jagge to retire the last Cub. Munk, whom the Tigers tagged for 10 hits was charged with the loss.

Extra base knocks—both doubles were by Munk of the Cubs and R. Haby of the Tigers.

The Seco Philosopher

J. A. Off Again On Pet Topic Of International Bank System

Editor's note: The Seco philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses banking again this week, a subject as foreign to him as hard work.

Dear editor:

For a long time now I've been admirin the international system of bankin and have repeatedly wondered why we can't have some like it here in Medina County.

This mornin I picked up a copy of a newspaper which my dog brought in from my neighbor's house. I been trainin that dog for four years to retrieve papers and while he's brought in every thing from cans to plow points, this was the first time he turned up with a newspaper, and I took it out to the shady side of the barn and read the latest thing on the international banking system.

Accordin t o this article, Russia owes the United States two and a half billion dollars and has since the last war when we was allies. Four years ago the U. S. stared negotiations, suggestin Russia pay up. Well, the thing has now dragged along them four years and we ain't no nearer a settlement now than we was when we started. Wantin to do the right thing, we cut the price from two and a half billion to one and a third billion, no use bein hard-hearted. Russia didn't budge. So then we went into a diplomatic huddle and cut it to one billion, droppin the third, and then, figurin maybe the word billion was undiplomatic we cut it to 800 million. But Russia just sits tight, sayin 240 million is all she'll pay, says the stuff she bought with that money is now depreciated almost down to nothin anyway, and the two countries is still arguin about it.

Now what I want to know is why some bank don't rise up to the international level? Say I borrow $100, on account of me and the bank is allies in the fight against weeds and I need the money desperately to hire hands. Then this fall when the note comes due, the bank would start international negotiations with me, and after four years of this would cut the loan down to $50, then down to $30, and make a final offer of $15, while all the time I was holdin out for payin only $2.50, pointin out the weeds the original $100 was used to get rid of has long since come back and is now ranker than ever and no right-thinkin man would expect me to pay in full. Come out and look at the weeds, if you don't believe it.

I tell you, the international system would be the salvation of a lot of people. It may be hard on the lender, but sure is fine for the borrower.

Yours faithful,
J. A.

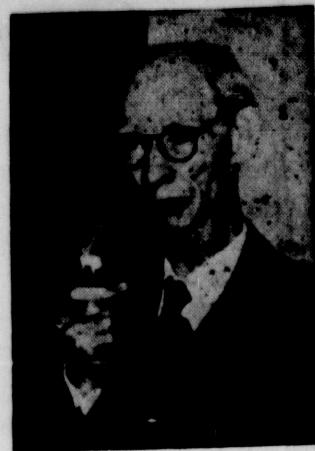

J. A.

UNCLE JAKE SAYS:

POINTED PARAGRAPHS PRODUCED WHILE PERUSING THE PAPERS

The Dallas News thinks, and we think correctly so, that in the tide-lands cont oversy now being considered in Congress, "Texas, Louisiana and California have the greatest immediate tangible interest" and that if they, through their representatives in Congress "do not lead in the fight, they can not expect much following." True as that is, however, the fact that if the grounds upon which the Supreme Court ruled is allowed to stand as a precedent it "will be a long step toward nationalization of resources and the extension of federal power" and "a long step in the fine art of twisting the wording of the Federal Constitution to any ends sought by government." Inestimable as is the value of the tide-lands to the state, the principle at stake is of infinitely more worth. Texas and the nation are watching the attitude of her Congressmen.

"Neither he nor his appointees took any effective action against the top echelons of the gambling, narcotic, water front, murder or book-making rackets. In fact, his actions impeded promising investigations of such rackets." Quoting the above finding of the Congressional inquiry into former Mayor O'Dwyer's connection with racketeering under his administration in New York, a commentator, noting the President's continued confidence, says "the public would like to know the basis of the confidence." A psychological study of character has concluded that actions are governed by character, that character is formed by the school that trains an individual and that, therefore, actions are on a level with the training that went before. Perhaps the questioner might find the "basis" he seeks in the Pendergast school of politics!

The Texas Economy Commission, organized at Governor Shiver's instigation some fourteen months ago for the purpose of studying the operations of the State government with a view to eliminating useless or duplicating functions and simplifying those retained as essential so as to promote a more efficient operation at a less cost, is out in a recent brochure in which it gives some startling facts and offers some pertinent suggestions. According to this publication, there has been a steady increase in the cost of the State government over the past fifty years from $5 million in 1900 to $500 million in 1950. The statement is also made that "there seems to have been no orderly control of the State's administrative machine" and the number of State agencies have "shot up" from 79 in 1918 to 99 in 1931 and to 135 in 1948. Such a record should be enough to convince any one that Texas is suffering from both too much government at too much expense.

The weakness about self-government is the indifference of the people as to how they govern themselves. If the people were alert to their duty to themselves in the matter of their government there would be no occasion for such an organization as the Economy Commission. Back in the period of 1931-33, the Graves Legislative Commission performed just such a service, as now proposed, of suggesting ways whereby economies in government might be effected. But because there was no active public demand for the recommended changes they were never carried out. A similar indifference seems to threaten the present movement before the Commission even begins to function. Sad to relate as a case in point, a meeting of Medina County citizens called for the purpose of setting the organization on foot locally was attended by just five men. That was about a year ago and no interest has been shown in the matter since. Do the people prefer a continuing expansion of government activities—and extravagances—with its attendant increase in cost, to arousing themselves to a proper interest in their civic duties?

Do you ever read the cartoons in your favorite newspaper? While drawn primarily to amuse and entertain, they accomplish much more. Often they tell a story and point a moral in a few well-constructed lines with a force and clearness that the columnist's best chosen words would find impossible to achieve. For instance, there were four reproduced at the bottom of your Sunday Express' editorial page. In the first, from Chicago Daily News, a perturbed John Bull is holding a letter in each hand. The one is from a soldier son in Korea saying "War here in Korea is a living hell"; the other from a son in Hong Kong saying "Business here is great." You can't miss the point! And there is no wonder that the English father is worried!

We are indebted to Des Moines Register for a G. I. sitting behind a machine gun pointing over a barricade of sand-bags, and anxiously peering through a telescope, watching for the approach of a foreign enemy, while a smirking giant stands just behind him with a massive club uplifted over the unsuspecting G. I.'s head. The giant is labeled "Inflation!" A stairway is depicted by New York Telegram and Sun. On each step is depicted some such blunders as "R. F. C. Scandals," "Job Selling," Etc., while the Democratic donkey is tumbling, heels over head, down the steps. Could the mess the party has made of trying to run things be more graphically portrayed? But the climax is reached by the Memphis Commercial Appeal with a pompous body and puffed-out chest of a headless and footless man from whose nest pocket Truman's body is emerging, with an uplifted right-arm and clinched fist as he shouts, "Acheson stays!" What words could so well describe the littleness of the man?

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Just "Can't Get Over" Easy's Fence

Few years ago, Easy Roberts took a lot of kidding when he planted that hedge of Multiflora roses — along his property line. Folks said he was getting pretty high-falutin'.

But today plenty of people who laughed at the idea slow down when they drive by Easy's place — just to look at those roses. Most beautiful sight you ever saw.

Practical, too! The hedge is a good four foot high now, and at least five foot thick—even a shoat couldn't get through that prickly mass of shrubbery. Best of all, it cost less than ordinary fencing. (Might be well worth your while looking into.)

From where I sit, there's no sense in looking down on something just because it's different from what we like. For instance, some people think ice-cold lemonade's the best "cooler-offer" on a hot day. Some of us would rather have a glass of beer. The important thing is not to "hedge ourselves in" against other people's ideas and preferences.

Price Ceilings And Scarcities

In a revealing editorial on the problems of price-fixing, the magazine The Freeman observed, "A legal price-ceiling arbitrarily establishes a lower price than the free competitive offers and bids of sellers, and buyers would establish in a free market. . . .

"But to say that a price-ceiling would make a price lower than a free market would make it, is only another way of saying that it would make demand chronically greater than supply. It would do this in two ways. Because it is a 'bargain', and because they can afford to use it more wastefully, buyers and consumers will demand more of the price-fixed articles at the lower fixed price than they would have demanded at the higher free price. And because they can make less of a profit-margin from it . . . producers will make less and sellers will offer less of the price-fixed articles at the legal price-ceiling than they would have produced and offered at the higher free price-ceiling. In short, the effect of price-ceiling is almost inevitably to bring about a shortage of the price-fixed articles."

The vast majority of producers and retailers are doing their utmost to make price regulations workable. Indeed, long before the government stepped in, the retailers of the country were voluntarily doing everything possible to hold prices down as is witnessed by the fact that price increases at retail generally lagged well behind price increases at wholesale. However, as The Freeman editorial intimates, no one can afford to make an article if it will not return him some profit—and no store can afford to sell an article unless its sale will bring some profit.

Sound administration of the pricing laws must take these basic facts into consideration.

LOCKED IN the files of the house foreign affairs committee is some dynamite-laden evidence by a former adviser to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, which would be of great interest in the MacArthur Truman debate.

Secret testimony was given on April 6, 1949, before the foreign affairs committee by Maj. Gen. David G. Barr, former military adviser to Chiang. At that time Barr testified, among other things, that Chiang's staff officers were incompetent, lazy, derelict and in some cases downright dishonest. He described the surrender of some Manchurian cities to the Communists by Chiang's generals as so suspicious as to raise possible doubts of a sell-out to the enemy. In some cases, Chiang's staff officers were not even present when the troops under them surrendered.

General Barr also told how great quantities of American equipment which we supplied the Nationalist forces fell into Communist hands, and in turn made the Red conquest of China much easier and quicker.

In one case a big allied supply base at Chinchow was left virtually and mysteriously undefended. Considering the amount of American equipment stored there, the actions of the Nationalist Chinese had all the earmarks of a sellout to the Communists who shortly thereafter captured it. It was not long before all Manchuria fell.

General Barr testified that he believed Chiang himself was honest, but that his troops, lacking leadership, long ago had lost the will to fight. For a while the war against the Communists on the Chinese mainland simply depended upon how rapidly Mao Tse-Tung's men wanted to travel.

Taft and MacArthur

Friends of Senator Taft report that the senator's visit with General MacArthur at the Waldorf Tower, New York, netted only two things—Taft's firm conviction that MacArthur meant what he said about keeping out of politics, and second, that the general could out-talk the rather loquacious senator from Ohio.

Taft went to see MacArthur to find out discreetly whether the general had any political intentions; and second, if not, to lay some diplomatic groundwork so that the general might later get on the Taft bandwagon.

MacArthur was cordial, but politically negative. He gave Taft a shortened version of his congressional speech, quoting it in such verbatim detail that it almost seemed as if he had memorized it.

Taft's friends say that he did not tell the general that he, the senator, was a candidate for the presidency though he did hint that the Republicans were most grateful to MacArthur for what he had done and that they would certainly want him to be a leading defense planner if they won in 1952.

History Repeats

Herbert Hoover, who has been the chief confidante of General MacArthur during the present big debate, paradoxically was on the other end of a somewhat similar situation when he was President of the United States.

Hoover made the mistake of ordering the court-martial of Maj. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, a popular marine corps figure, after Butler had started a lecture that Benito Mussolini, then dictator of Italy, had run over a child with his car but failed to stop. General Butler's court-martial was ordered after Italian Ambassador Di Martino had protested officially.

But immediately there arose a tremendous outcry from the American press and public, and for weeks Hoover was the butt of possibly more scathing criticism than Harry Truman.

The situation was somewhat comparable to the present MacArthur debate in that the admirals did not like General Butler any more than some of the leaders in the Pentagon love General MacArthur.

It was also significant that Hoover's popularity at that time had sunk to an extremely low ebb, comparable to that of Truman's today.

In the end, Hoover did what Harry Truman has not done. He abjectly surrendered and called off General Butler's court-martial.

Droughtproof Crops

Most important experiments in modern agriculture in years are being conducted at the government's research laboratory at Beltsville, Md.

Beltsville scientists, though cautious in their comment, indicate that they are on the scent of a sensational discovery that may make farm crops droughtproof.

Briefly, the scientists are developing a chemical spray that makes plants capable of holding moisture for prolonged periods.

Ranchers Fight Against Coyotes In Two Counties

A Hondo Canyon Wolf Club has been organized by sheep and goat men to rid the Hondo River and Verde Creek areas in Medina and Bandera Counties of coyotes, it was announced last week by H. F. Schlemmer of Bandera.

The group has hired a government trapper to assist in the work. He is Archie Donaghey of Sabinal.

Coyotes have been reported in the area, with the most trouble at this time on the Ash Gilliam and Fabian Garrison places where goats have been lost regularly. Wesley DeGroot, below Tarpley, says he has heard coyotes there several times.

The Bandera County Livestock Improvement Association is acting as sponsor in co-operation with the Medina County Wildlife Association. Raisers in the area are asked to donate a half-cent per month for each month for each goat or sheep on their places. Other livestock and poultry raisers are also asked to help.

Owners of hunting lease will be asked to put up 1 cent an acre on land they own to help the fund.

More than $1,000 was raised at the first meeting in Tarpley. Cost of the program has been estimated at $123 per month, and Bandera and Medina Counties have each agreed to put up $300 a year through their commissioner's courts. The federal and state governments also pay one-third of the cost as well as supplying traps and supplies.

Checks should be made payable to the Hondo Canyon Wolf Club and sent to Schlemmer at Bandera or to the Medina County Wildlife Association in Hondo.

Subsoiling Pays

BIG DIVIDENDS!

Subsoiling to break up hard, tight soils pays big dividends. Your land is opened up for rapid moisture penetration and storage . . . erosion is greatly reduced . . . more vigorous root growth is assured . . . crops are healthier, more abundant . . . profits are bigger.

John Deere-Killefer Panbreakers are scientifically designed to do the job right. Penetrating as deep as 36 inches, depending upon the model used, these heavy-duty implements completely lift and shatter hardpan, plowpan, and other tight soil formations—all without bringing sterile subsoil to the surface where it will interfere with seed germination.

Rugged, heavy-duty construction assures years of trouble-free service. Simple, positive tractor control and accurate screw-type depth regulator make good work easy. There's a size to match your power—from the smaller model which works as deep as 20 inches and can be handled with a two-plow tractor, up to the largest model which works as deep as 36 inches and requires the power of a track-type tractor. See us for complete information.

LLOYD M. BENTSEN, JR.

WASHINGTON—So far this Congress the President has vetoed two bills—one veto stood, the other the House voted to override. Overriden by the House was the President's veto of a bill relating to the acquisition and disposition of property by the armed forces—the principle of which he advocated when a member of Congress himself.

Your Congressman voted to override the President's veto reasoning that the Congress should have a better knowledge of the manner in which the Defense Department spends the taxpayer's money. This reasoning was supported by Rep. Vinson of Georgia, the chairman of the Armed Services Committee and the author of the bill. He told the House that the armed forces soon will ask for authority to spend more than $6 billion to expand their installations and to build new ones. He said Congress owes it to the taxpayers to keep a veto power over how this money is spent.

The bill, which the President vetoed, requires that any purchase of realty or any lease involving over $10,000 has to be submitted to the consideration of the Congressional committee. This the President vetoed, saying it was bad legislation and that it would involve delay. The committee chairman said the Navy had been operating for about ten years under this procedure, that there had been no delay except for legitimate reasons.

Likewise, testimony showed that the procedure, as set forth in the bill, would result in the saving of millions of dollars.

Without this bill the Army, during the last war, had the authority—and has it now—to lease any hotel in the United States at any price. All Congress and the taxpayers could do was foot the bill.

During the last war such conditions became so bad that the Truman committee in the Senate made an investigation of hotels leased on Miami Beach and in other cities by both the Army and the Navy. Senator (now President) Truman said in his report back in '44: "The manner in which hotel acquisition was carried out resulted in many injustices which the War Department has shown little inclination to prevent. The War Department should review the entire situation in detail and report to the proper legislative committees of the Congress. It should be pointed out that the Navy department advises the legislative committees of its real estate transactions in advance and keeps them advised of its situation." That's what this bill proposed requiring of the entire Defense Department.

In your Congressman voted to agree with Senator Truman and disagree with President Truman as to the merits of Congress closely checking anticipated major real estate purchases of the Defense Department.

VISIT TO KOREA
Carefully and thoroughly your Congressman has read and listened to many reports from the Korean battlefield without all questions being answered to my complete satisfaction.

While reading and listening to everything available is partially satisfactory, your Congressman knows from experience in World War II that first hand observation is really the best means of studying the adequacy of our materiel, performance of our allies, morale, rotation policies, and other problems resulting from the Korean War.

Feeling that I could do a better job of representing you and our men in Korea if I went, myself, to Korea and observed conditions there, I have asked the Secretary of the Air Force to grant me two weeks of active duty in that combat theatre. In this way the legislative body which is asked to vote extension of the draft, appropriations for armed forces and a multitude of other measures affecting the war in Korea would have some of its own members returning to give a first report on the need of our fighting men.

I'm hopeful that several of us members who are combat veterans of World War II will be able to make such a trip and report back to the Congress. Adios.

Motor Vehicle Inspection Act Plans Announced

AUSTIN, May 22 (Spl)—Homer Garrison, Jr. Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that preliminary plans are under way for the administration of the State's new Motor Vehicle Inspection Act.

Recently passed by the 52nd

Legislature and signed into law by Governor Allan Shivers, the act, which designed to enhance traffic safety by removing unsafe motor vehicles from the highways, will become effective 90 days after the adjournment of the 52nd Legislature.

According to Garrison, an additional period of about 60 days will be required to complete the organization details of the inspection division which, by law, will fall under the supervision of the Public Safety Department.

Garrison stated that garage owners and other individuals interested in making application for official inspection station in their areas may do so by writing directly to him at Austin. The proper application blanks will be mailed to those making inquiry as soon as they are available. Those selected will be subject to a thorough examination of facilities and equipment and will be instructed in inspection standards. Garrison further stated that no testing devices have yet been available for applicants to purchase such equipment until his Department has set up the official standards for such devices. approved and that it was not ad-

FEELING RUN DOWN—This goat, bought at the Lions Club auction by Jake Schuehle (right), was feeling so run down from an afternoon in the sun that Fritz Leinweber gave him his bottle of Hadacol, also bought at the sale. After just the one bottle, the goat felt a whole lot better.

The Hondo Lion Club felt pretty good too, as they took in over $900 at the auction, most of which went to the band fund.

Others making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Neal O'Neill and children and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O'Neill and children of San Antonio.

Baby Does Well After Birth On East-Bound Train

Sandra Pauline Reed and her mother, Mrs. Jack Reed, left Memorial Hospital in Uvalde early Tuesday morning via automobile for their home in Channel View, near Houston.

Sandra Pauline was born at 11:23 a. m. Monday, May 14, in a chair car lounge of the Southern Pacific's east-bound Argonaut near Cline. A Navy doctor and an Air Force doctor, passengers on the train, presided at the birth which took place about a month ahead of Mrs. Reed's expectations. Passengers and porters hurriedly improvised clothing for the baby from bed linens.

Train Conductor John E. Buckman telegraphed ahead to Uvalde for an ambulance to meet the train. Mother and child were transferred to Uvalde Memorial Hospital and both reported in good condition. Sandra Pauline, named in honor of the railway, weighed 7 pounds, 10 ounces.

Mrs. Reed and children were enroute from Klamath Falls, Oregon, to join her husband in Houston. He hitchhiked to Houston six weeks ago to take a shipyard job. Mr. Reed drove to Uvalde Monday night to see his new daughter and to take his family back to Houston with him.—Uvalde Leader-News.

His answer, "the mocking bird," won the value prize. A week later, on the same program, Suehs appeared to accept the prize in the absence of Rev.
